

Vintage: 2007
Appellation: Columbia Valley
Source: Conner Lee,
Hedges Estate,
Wallula & Wahluke
Slope Vineyards
Varietals: 84% Cabernet Sauvignon, 7% Merlot,
5% Cabernet Franc
& 4% Petit Verdot
Average Vine Age: 21 years
Average Yield: 1.78 tons/acre
Harvest Dates: Sept. 21 - Oct 30, 2007
Oak treatment: 100% new American oak, aged for 22 months
Alcohol: 14.5% by vol.
pH: 3.8
TA: 6.5 g/L
Case Production: 1200 750ml x 12
cases

A great expression of the vintage! This wine is elegantly balanced from start to finish. Begins with deep black fruits gliding over the mid-palate with luscious, resolved tannins and depth. The finish lingers and leaves you wanting more. Although consumable early, this wine is built for cellaring. This wine will benefit from a short time in a decanter.

Barons