Barons V Winery ships via FedEx Ground/Home Delivery, weather permitting, on Mondays, Tuesdays & Wednesdays. We do not ship when weather forecasts are 80° F and over, or below 40° F. If your order is placed during summer months and would like us to ship it, we will hold onto your wine for shipment until weather permits, or you can opt for Next Day Air. You will be notified via email when your wine ships. We can also hold your wine at the winery for pickup for 30 days following your wine order placement.
